Pittsburgh Convention—Boys in Blue—Brave Defenders.

A meeting of heroes met in Pittsburg on Tuesday last, representing the loyal north and some of the southern States. Governor Cox, of Ohio, was chosen the permanent President of the Convention, assisted by two Vice Presidents, and two Secretaries from each State represented. The greatest unanimity prevailed; the members of the Convention looked upon their sentiments as unanimously adopted, and enthusiastically applauded.

The resolutions reported by the committee and adopted unanimously by the Convention, are a clear and emphatic emunciation of the faith that was in the delegates and the large and influential body of the American people they represented. With wise adherance to the true line whereon the Union party is fast breaking down all opposition, the Convention indorsed the Constitutional Amendment proposed by Congress. By so doing the Convention has justified the expectations of the Union men of the land and given momentum to the cause whose triumph is already assured. From beginning to end, the Convention has been a success. Its influence will be extensive and permanent. It will be felt far beyond the present election.—No man is sagacious who does not perceive this.

Below we give the resolutions passed:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the action of the present Congress in proposing the pending Constitutional amendments is wise, patriotic and just.

It clearly defines American citizenship and guarantees all the rights of every citizen.

It places on a just and equal basis the right of representation, making the vote of a man in one State equally potent with the vote of another man in any State.

It righteously excludes from places of honor and trust the chief conspirators and guiltiest rebels whose perjured crimes have drenched the land in fraternal blood

It puts into the very frame of our Government the inviolability of the national debt, and the nullity forever of all obligations contracted in support of the rebellion.

Resolved, That it is unfortunate for the country that those propositions have not been received in the spirit of feeling in which they were offered, as they are in the mildest terms ever granted to subdued rebels.

Resolved, That the President, as an Executive officer, has no right to a policy antagonist to the Legislative Department of the Government. That his attempt to fasten his scheme of reconstruction upon the country is a usurpation as dangerous as it is unwise. His acts in sustaining it have retarded the restoration of peace and unity.—They have converted conquered rebels into impudent claimants for rights which they have forfeited and places which they have deserted. If consummated it would render the sacrifices of the nation useless, the loss of the lives of our buried comrades vain; and the war in which we have so gloriously triumphed what his present friends at Chicago in 1864 declared it to be—a failure.

Resolved, That the right of the conquerors to legislate for the conquered has been recognized by the public law of all civilized nations. By the operations of that law for the conservation of the highest good of the whole country, Congress has the undoubted right to establish measures for the conduct and acts of legislation that are necessary for the complete restoration of the Union.

Resolved, That when the President claims that by the aid of the army and navy he might have made himself dictator, he insulted every soldier and sailor of the Republic. He ought distinctly to understand that the tried patriots of this nation can never be used to overthrow civil liberty and popular governments.

Resolved, That the neutrality laws should be so amended as to give the fullest liberty to the citizens consistent with the national faith. That the great Union Republican party is pledged to maintain liberty and equality of rights every where, and therefore, we tender to all people struggling for freedom, our sympathy and cordial co-operation.

Resolved, That the Union men of the South, without distinction of race or color, are entitled to the gratitude of every loyal soldier and sailor who served his country in suppressing the rebellion, and that in their present dark hour of trial, when they are being murdered and persecuted by thousands, solely because they are now and have been true to the Government, we will not prove recreant to our obligations, but will stand by and protect with our lives, if necessary, those brave men who remained true to us when all around were false and faithless.

Resolved, That the public domain as the common property of the nation, ought to be sacredly held donated to the benefit of the nation's defenders; that Congress ought to legislate in regard to bounties and pensions, with the most exact and impartial justice to all soldiers and sailors.

Resolved, That in the organization of the army and navy, the volunteer officers and soldiers demand that all their services in the field ought to be held equivalent to an education at West Point.

Resolved, That any officer, soldier or sailor who lost his life, or was wounded in our glorious cause, or who may have met with a disability in the army or navy of the Union.

The resolutions were received with tremendous cheering, and as soon as quiet was restored, General Cochran, of New York, after a few words expressive of his satisfaction of the resolutions, must give to every loyal man, moved their adoption.

The motion was seconded and the report unanimously adopted, with great cheering.

Col. A. D. Streight, of Indiana, offered the following resolution, which was adopted without a dissenting voice and was greeted with deafening plaudits and cries of good. The resolution is as follows:

Resolved, That the President and Congress be requested to have moved from the southern States all depots of arms and munitions of war, and that no more be sent there until the rebel States have given sufficient guarantees that they will not again rise up in rebellion.

The convention adjourned sine die on Wednesday evening. It was one of the most important conventions ever assembled in this commonwealth.

The Policy of the Union Party to Restore the National Union.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of the said Legislatures, shall be valid as a part of the Constitution, namely:

Article—, Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States. Nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

"Section 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President and Vice President, or for United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in that State.

"Section 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

"Section 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned, but neither the United States nor any other State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be illegal and void."

THE floods at the West appear to have been providential. They prevailed most in those regions through which Andrew Johnson traveled, and appear to have been sent by a God of purity and truth, to wipe out from earth all traces of the filth and lies scattered over the land by his accidency, in his recent drunken perigrinations.

OUR national credit under a Republican Congress has been nobly sustained, and our securities are above par.

GEN. GEARY bears seven wounds received in defending our nationality.—Vote for Geary.

WOULD you have A. H. Stephens ex-rebel Vice President, and H. V. Johnson ex-rebel Senator in the U. S. Senate from Georgia, vote the Democratic ticket.

CLYMER voted against allowing soldiers to vote. Vote for Geary.

[From the Washington Reporter.]

JOSEPH B. WELSH, Esq.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

This question will soon be answered by the American people. Andrew Johnson is laboring to bully and to buy a favorable verdict, while the Union Republicans are demanding that the confidence so freely reposed in them shall not be withdrawn because the President has added calamity to his Accidency. They made him Vice President, but they did not make him a recreant to themselves and what they believed to be his honor. Had they led him from rectitude they could desire defeat. But as his ingratitude is his own, and not theirs, it is to be hoped they will not be made vicarious victims. On no other theory can the Union Republicans lose the next Congress. It is not to be supposed for a moment that the American people would decide in favor of Andrew Johnson's treachery.

The following table, carefully compiled by two Congressional experts, will show exactly where the two Houses stood at the close of the last session:

Leaving the Senate to stand as it is, (and it is evident to all observers that it must be stronger Union next year than now,) let us see how the steady Radical column in the House can be affected by the money and the threats of a prostituted power.

To neutralize this preponderating Union force in that body so as to give Andrew Johnson a pretext to force in the rebels, the Copperheads must gain twenty-six members in the coming elections. They claim to be able to accomplish this by gaining two in Maine, two in Pennsylvania, three in Kentucky, three in New York, two in Ohio, two in Illinois, two in Indiana, three in Missouri, four in Tennessee, one in Connecticut, and two in Maryland—in all twenty-six. If this claim is sustained, the figures would stand:

Union Republicans	121
Copperheads	71
Restored rebels	50	121

Let us look this calculation squarely in the face!

That Maine has already elected a full Republican delegation appears from the results so far as received up to a late hour last night.

That Pennsylvania will stand two better in the next Congress than she does, in the present, we boldly affirm.

Mr. Greeley, of the Tribune, is confident that we shall not lose, and may gain, in New York.

From Illinois we have intelligence from the best sources that the copperheads cannot hold their own, but will be beaten more heavily than in 1863. Logan leads the column in Illinois.

Now less decisive is our information from Indiana and Ohio. In Connecticut is debatable in one district, though the delegates that visited Philadelphia last week laughed at the intimation that they would not do better at the next election.

It will be seen that the only gains that the combination of copperheads and traitors can possibly make in the coming Congressional elections, are in the States where, as in Kentucky, the rebels openly rule, or as in Maryland, Missouri and Tennessee, they expect aided by Union bayonets to rule. A fact is worth a mile of statistics and a volume of argument.

Representation—Loss and Gain.

One of the results, if not one of the objects of President Johnson's plan will be to materially increase the political power of the rebellious States, and to decrease the political power of the loyal North. This is the way in which treason is to be made odious—to reward traitors for their treason; or, in the language of the Richmond Times, to secure them "the best fruits of the victory." Examine the following figures with reference to the subject of representation in Congress.

The whole number of members, as fixed by law is two hundred and forty-one, divided on the existing basis of representation, counting the late slaves as three-fifths, as follows:

Free States	156
Late Slave States	85

But as slavery is abolished the three-fifths basis will become a nullity, and the negroes, though not voters, will count as five-fifths, changing the figures as follows:

Free States	146

being an actual loss to the loyal States of ten members, and a gain to the rebel States of an equal number, and of a relative loss to the loyal States of twenty members, and a gain to the disloyal States of the same number.

Now, let us see how the figures stand on the voter basis as proposed by Congress. The total enfranchised population in the United States, according to the last census, was, in round numbers, as follows:

In Free States	18,800,000
In Late Slave States	8,000,000
Total	26,800,000

111,200 persons for ... will produce that basis the following would be the apportionment:

Free States	169
Late Slave States	72

being a gain to the North over the present apportionment of thirteen members, and a loss to the South of the same number, or a relative gain to the North and loss to the South of twenty-six members; while over an apportionment on the basis of abolition of slavery, counting negroes as whites, it would be a gain to the North and a corresponding loss to the South of twenty-three members, or a relative gain to the former and loss to the latter of forty-six votes, both in Congress and the Electoral College.

FIRST RECAPITULATION.

North, on present apportionment	156
North, on whole population	146
Showing a loss of	10
South, on whole population, including disfranchised negroes	95
South, on present apportionment	85
Showing a gain of	10

SECOND RECAPITULATION.

North, on voter basis	169
North, on whole population	146
Showing a gain of	23
South, on whole population, including disfranchised negroes	95
South, on voters basis	72
Showing a loss of	23

If the basis of representation is not changed, Pennsylvania will lose three votes in Congress and in the Electoral College as a punishment for her loyalty, while those votes will be added to South Carolina and Georgia as rewards for their treason; but should the proposed amendment to the Constitution be adopted, Pennsylvania will gain two votes, while South Carolina will lose two votes. Pennsylvania has now twenty-five votes; the proposed amendment will give us twenty seven, while the rejection of the amendment will reduce our number to twenty-two, decreasing our strength in Congress and the Electoral College five votes, and increasing the representation of the South correspondingly.

Reconstruction.

Two plans of reconstructing the Southern States, and restoring them to their proper relations to the Union, have been placed before the people.—One of them emenates from the President—without any warrant of law—and is called "my policy"—the other emenates from the Representatives of the People, in Congress assembled, in pursuance of the powers and authorities committed to them by the Constitution. The Presidential plan proposes the immediate admission of Representatives in Congress from the South as the grand panacea for all evils—whilst the Congressional plan proposes that guarantees, in the shape of the constitutional amendments, shall be first accepted and agreed to by the South, before they shall be restored to their old places of power and influence in the nation.

The President denounces the plan of Congress as tyrannical and oppressive, and says that Congress does not want any reconstruction because they will not approve his policy or plan. He styles those who differ with him dis-unionists, and their representatives in Congress as traitors, who are seeking to break up the government. It is singular how very forgetful he is as to the views and opinions he has held and expressed upon these very subjects within the past two years.

There are certain grave questions, of vital importance to the future peace and prosperity of this nation, which arise out of the late rebellion, and which must be settled definitely and permanently, before we can hope for peace throughout the land. These issues are clearly set forth in the proposed constitutional amendments. The adoption of the President's policy will determine none of them. They would all come up for adjustment before Congress, and would continue to disturb the peace of the nation for years to come, and if settled as the Southern members desire, would entail injustice, increased debt, and ruinous taxation upon us and our posterity.

But adopt the Congressional plan by making the constitutional amendments a part of the organic law of the land, and all these vexed questions will forever be settled and withdrawn from the political arena—all loyal representatives elected by the Southern States will be at once admitted to participate in the legislation of the country. Peace will be restored throughout the land—the rights of all classes of the citizens will be respected, the national honor maintained, the national faith vindicated, and the Union enter upon a career of power and prosperity unprecedented in the history of the world.—Chambersburg Repository.

The Judgeship Again.

By the act of Assembly of last winter, Beaver and Washington counties were created into a new Judicial District.

B. B. Chamberlin, Esq., of this county, was appointed to fill the office of Judge, until the next general election.

The Republicans of Beaver county presented the name of Mr. Chamberlin; the Republicans of Washington county the name of A. W. Acheson, Esq., for the Union nomination for the position.

Each county appointed three conferees, to whom was entrusted the work of making a nomination for the District. These conferees nominated Mr. Acheson, and now Mr. Chamberlin presents himself as a candidate to the people independent of a party nomination.

Union men of Beaver county, will you sustain the candidate of your party, or sustain one who holds no such relation to you? How would you have acted in the event that Mr. Chamberlin had been nominated, and have thought him guilty of conduct unbecoming a party brother, and done all in your power to bring about his defeat! Then let us do now as we would wish to be done by, and give Mr. Acheson our hearty support.

Voters Remember

The copperheads detest Col. Taylor, our candidate for the State Senate, and they have a reason to do so. He was a soldier in the Union army, and largely interested in putting down the rebellion, for whose success they hoped and prayed. The rebels were equally hostile to him, and after his capture at Plymouth, took him to Charleston and placed him with fifty other Union officers under the fire of our batteries. He will triumph over his foes now as he did then.

The men whom the copperheads most fear, and who are most dangerous to them, are those upon whom they make the bitterest fight, and are those whom the Union men should most strongly support. Remember this on to-morrow. In Col. Taylor's election we secure a vote for the Constitutional Amendment, and a vote to substitute Governor Curtin, or some other good Union man for Edgar Cowan, in the United States Senate.

The Programme Changed.

Last year the copperheads were unsparing in their expressions of admiration for the soldier, and ran nearly a clean soldier's ticket, hoping thereby to catch soldier's votes. This year they have one soldier upon their ticket, and he, a man who in the language of the Local, "flanked Providence" and got out of the service in time to save himself from bodily harm. They have either exhausted their stock of copperhead soldiers in this county, or else learning last year that the trick would'nt win, concluded, on not trying the experiment over.

The Union ticket is composed largely of men who have faced rebel ball and bayonet. Our candidate for the Senate, all three of our candidates for Assembly, Sheriff, Register & Recorder, and Auditor, were gallant soldiers in the Union army, and their comrades in battle should see that they are elected by sweeping majorities.

BE at the polls early and if your neighbors are not there "on time" send for them.

Voters Remember

That in casting your ballot for General Geary for Governor, you vote for a man who periled his all that his country might live; and that in voting for Clymer, you vote for one who risked nothing and did nothing for his nations flag, but who was on the contrary a foe to the brave men who fought and fell to sustain it.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in voting for Geo. V. Lawrence for Congress, you give your suffrage to a man who has been tried and never cast a vote in Congress or made a speech in that body that any loyal man could take exceptions to, and that in voting for Montgomery you vote for a man that would admit perjured traitors to seats in Congress, and has made laws for those who conquered them in battle.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in giving your vote for Taylor for the State Senate, you vote for a soldier of the Union army, and indirectly in favor of a loyal man to represent us in the United States Senate in place of the renegade Cowan; and that in voting for Rush you give your suffrage to an avowed copperhead during the war, and a man who, if elected, would vote to retain Cowan in the seat which he now disgraces.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in voting for Quay, Ewing and Day you vote for men who served you in battle and one of whom (Quay) relieved your real estate of taxation during the last session of the Legislature; and that in voting for Edgar, Callohan and Birch, you vote for men of known disloyalty during the war, and who are too destitute of ability and influence to accomplish anything in a legislative body.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in giving your vote to John S. Littell, you help to elect a man sheriff of this county who with his own strong arm and lion heart won his star during our national struggle; and that in voting for James J. Huzey, you vote for a man that no person knows, and for whom no one cares, and of whom it is enough to say: his sympathies were not with his struggling country when it invoked the aid of its friends.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in giving your ballot to Darius Singleton for Register and Recorder, you support a man that shouldered his musket in the dark days of the Republic, fought his country's battles, and returned to his home with but the use of one of his arms; and that in voting for Samuel Musser, you give no and no feeling in common with those at the front, nor with his Government while throttling the rebellion.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in supporting John A. Frazier for County Clerk, you support an obliging officer, a christian gentleman and a loyal citizen, and that in giving your vote to James M. Phillis, you give your suffrage to a man who started out well in the war, but who has since sadly deteriorated not only in loyalty but, in morals, and who in addition has no qualifications to fill the office for which he is a candidate.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in supporting James Warnock for County Commissioner, you vote for an honest farmer, an industrious man, and one whose qualifications are undoubted; and that in voting for John Baxter, you support a man that was put upon the Democratic ticket merely "to fill it up."

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in giving your support to John K. Potter for Poor House Director you give your vote to a good citizen, and a man well qualified to fill the office; and that in voting for Nicholas Todd, you support a man whose farm is said to be so out of order that it detracts much from the good name of the county.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That in giving your ballot to J. F. McMillin for Auditor, you bestow it upon a soldier of the line" and a man who has fine business qualifications, and that in giving your vote to J. H. Cooper, you give it to a man that the Democracy themselves would not have nominated if they would have thought themselves able to elect.

VOTERS REMEMBER

That Dr John Murray and Dr. David Stanton have both been loyal to the Government, active in putting down the rebellion, and are among our most intelligent and best citizens; and that Dr. Jackson was simply put upon the ticket by the County Committee because another would not stand as a candidate, and that Rev. Beaty lives so distant from the Academy that if elected he could attend to none of the business pertaining to the institution.

BE at the polls all day and see that every Union man who is entitled to a vote is not prevented from depositing it in the box.

Examine Your Ticket.

Look well to your ballot before depositing it. Our opponents have no doubt bogus tickets, which they will endeavor to scatter broadcast throughout the county, to prevent our people from being imposed upon in this way, we print below the genuine Union ticket. Examine it carefully, and before depositing your ballot, see that every name corresponds with the one in the paper. Remember that the first name of each of our candidates is printed in full in the genuine tickets, those having only the initial are spurious.

A Base Slander.

In portions of the county where such a slander can be made effective, the opponents of Mr. Acheson are asserting that that gentleman is a "drunkard," and therefore unfit to be President Judge of this District.—This is a base falsehood. Mr. Acheson has a reputation for sobriety that but few men can lay claim to, and in addition has a moral character that will add lustre to the position which he will shortly fill. Voters, be not there fore deceived. Montgomery and his satellites are the authors of all of these stories sprung upon the eve of the election. Give no heed no tales about our candidates after it is too late for contradiction, but vote the whole ticket from top to bottom.

The Coppery Demonstration.

The copperheads of this county on Tuesday last had the largest demonstration they ever made in the county; but its only significance is that they are alive to the importance of this election to them and their friends, the rebels, and that they will poll their entire vote to-morrow.

Their procession was made up of 854 voters—146 less than we supposed last week—about 400 wagons filled women, little girls and rude boys, and covered nearly over with pine, hickory, &c., &c. We saw no one amongst them who has not always been with them, and whose nature and disposition would certainly not attach him to any other organization.

We urge it again upon our people to do their whole duty to-morrow and if our opponents have not learned it yet, we will teach them on that day that wagons, mules, little boys and girls, and women, have no votes in Pennsylvania.

Montgomery's Raid.

We learn from our friends in Washington county that Montgomery boasts of what he accomplished in his perigrinations over here. They can rest assured that he has gained nothing in Beaver county, and that he has probably done less harm among us than if he had stayed at home. The Union men of Beaver county may now and then indulge in local squibbles, but they will always see to it that these are never sprung to the benefit of a Washington county copperhead. We understand that while Montgomery was out in our country districts he was bowing, scraping and shaking hands with our people, as if he was a candidate for constable at a township election. He will learn that this sort of electioneering may do in the crowd in which he trains, but will avail him nothing with the men whose votes he is just now begging.

THE Constitutional Amendment, if adopted, gives peace to the country, and security for the future; if rejected, the currency and bonds of the country will in all probability become worthless and war will again be at our doors. Vote, therefore, for men who will vote for the amendment.

Voters Remember.

Let every loyal man who goes to the polls to-morrow remember that the issue is squarely joined between the Rebellion and the Northern people on the Congressional election only, and that is the most important in the country, than even the success of any candidate for Governor in any of the States. If we were to-day to vote upon the question of the election of Geary or a majority of the Union Congressmen in Pennsylvania, we should elect to defeat the former. The treachery of the Executive has left Congress alone to interpose between the country and its enemies, to prevent their schemes of treason and repudiation, and to preserve the fruits of the triumph for which we toiled during four long, weary bloody years. Geary's defeat would be weakening to us in as much as it would say to the country that the great State of Pennsylvania declared upon the side of the wrong, but the defeat of our Congressmen would be fatal to the nation. Montgomery and Lawrence the one firm for Abraham Lincoln and his policy all through the war, the other as decidedly hostile to them, and both prominent in their respective parties, are before the people for their suffrage. Montgomery avows himself as the "National" Union candidate. The "National Union" to which he doubtless refers is the union of sentiment, purpose and action which has existed since the outbreak of the rebellion, between copperheadism in the North and secessionism in the South, and the people of the 24th District so regard it. He labored four years persistently for the defeat of the National arms, and is now laboring for the elevation of the rebels to power. He will be as unsuccessful in the one undertaking as he was in the other, if the people are as true to their country and their own interests now as they were then.

Mr. Lawrence has proven himself an able and a faithful Representative. There is not one vote of his during the late important session of Congress which any loyal man can challenge. There is not one vote of his that Montgomery would not reverse. Let every Union voter of Beaver county then see that whatever else may be wanting, the name of Lawrence is upon his ticket. We must have two thirds majority in the next Congress to effectually check the usurpations of the President, and the loss of a single member may place the North at his feet.

Be Up and Doing.

Our friends in the county must see ticket is at the polls. The copperheads are wide awake, and will poll all their vote.

The have upon a full poll 2200 in the county. At the last election our vote was but 2244, and unless we exert ourselves there is a possibility of the defeat of some of our local candidates. We have 3800 Union voters in Beaver county to day, and we only need to have them at the polls to insure such a majority as will squelch the opposition for all time. Beaver county is booked for 1000. Let us then see that it is made.

"Quit the Ship."

The copperheads a few months ago, felicited themselves hugely upon the accession of Messrs. Seward, Weed and Raymond to their ranks. Raymond and Weed dropped out about the time of the New York nominations, and the Presidential trip, together with "the news from Maine," has so disgusted and sickened Seward, that he is now absorbed as straggling from the Jhnson column.

These men has tried the forbidden paths, and found tem too tortuous and dangerous too trod, and hence have come back again to the policy they temporarily discarded, and the friends they for a short no deserted.

THE Soldiers so fought for the Republic, cannot vote for the negro suffrage candidate for Governor.—Local.

The Local callsen. Geary the "negro suffrage candiate." If its editor had "optics sep and keen" they could point him to Soldier's League in this county, numbering over three hundred men, and every one of whom proposes not only vote for General Geary, but to do they can to secure the election. Ten idlers in this county will vote for Cry, for every one that will support Clymer, and in about the same proporo, will the "boys in blue" vote throuout the State.

If we fail to try the Constitutional Amendment the South will gain ten representatives Congress, and the North will lose—equal to twenty and almost equlent to the entire representation of great State of Pennsylvania, and completely nullifying the votes of fivndred thousand loyal white trees of the North! This will be rewing treason and punishing loyalty, this is the policy of Johnson.

Cheap Buncombe.

Some coppery politician got a telegram into the papers on last Tuesday stating that in the local election held on that day, the democrats and conservatives had made large gains on the Unionists of Connecticut. Our limberkneed neighbor up street was gullible enough to swallow the item and afterwards aver that it was true. Look at the New York Tribune one day after the election says upon the same subject:

"Connecticut, hold town elections yesterday, in many of her towns, and the aggregate results shows overwhelming gains to the Republican Unionists. They have carried almost every town where they seriously tried, including quite a number that were against them last Spring. Among these are Seymour, which never before went Republican as well as Danbury, which we lost at the State election. There is scarcely a township which does not show a decided Republican gain in the popular vote. So it is wherever a people who can read are enabled to pass judgment on "My Policy."

Trading off Clymer.

We have positive assurances, from the eastern and central portions of the State that our opponents have given up the election of Clymer, and are quietly trading him off, for votes for Congressmen or Legislator; especially are they doing this in doubtful districts.

Union men! We know that this is true. Therefore spurn their propositions to trade, and vote the whole Union ticket. If they are acting in bad faith toward the head of their own ticket, never let it be said that we followed so mean and perfidious an example. Let us be true to our cause, true to our candidates, and true to our manhood.

Two Hundred Votes.

We understand that "our own Montgomery" boasts that he will make two hundred votes in Beaver county, principally in New Brighton, out of the Judicial difficulty. When he hears the returns from that Borough he will find himself sadly mistaken. Our friends are a little independent up there upon local candidates, but upon a question of principle, such as the Congressional election, they never swerve, and Montgomery will ascertain this in due course of time.

We enter into no further encomium upon Ruth. But we simply say he is the man the people want.—Local.

You were somewhat late in finding it out though, were you not. Two months ago, "Bigger was the man the people wanted;" then they didn't want him. Two weeks ago, "Welsh was the man the people wanted;" then it is just "the man the people wanted," after Thursday next they wont want him either. Stick a pin there.

Brutal.

At a coppery Mass Meeting in Baltimore a fews days ago, there was a banner with this inscription upon it: "We are for Negro Suffrage—the way they suffered in New Orleans." Union men, let us show them to-morrow, that this brutality weakens, instead of strenthen that party in Beaver county. Such a sentiment as this should drive every honest, well-meaning Democrat out of the ranks of that demoralized organization.

Selling Negroes.

The opponents of our candidate for Judge are alleging that a few years ago he fell heir to an estate in the South, consisting of slaves &c., and that he went there, placed these slaves upon the auction block, sold them and pocketed the proceeds. This is untrue. Mr. Acheson never fell heir to an estate in the South, and therefore was never the owner either directly or indirectly of a slave in his life.

THE ladies labored hard and efficiently during the war to promote the comfort of the brave men at the front; they can aid the same cause almost as effectively now as they did then. Therefore, ladies, if you have a father, brother or son who seems heedless of the duties of to-morrow, urge him by all the means in your power to go to the polls and vote as the country's defenders shot. Until they have done a patriot's duty, give them no peace nor quiet at home.

THE Local says "Providence smiles on the Democracy." That is what the rebels claimed all through the war, but they discovered their mistake about the time Grant took charge of their main army at Appomatox Court House. The Local will discover its error on Wednesday next.

SEE the letter of Hon. J. B. Welsh on the outside of our paper, declining the coppery nomination for the State Senate. By the way, why did not the Local publish the letter of Mr. W, which was handed to it last week?

THE Local says that at the recent Fair, its candidate For Poor House Director, "Nicholas Todd took the first premium on horses." The Local is misfaken. Nicholas took the premium on a Jack.

VOTE the whole Union ticket. Let it not be blotted with a single scratch.

In Advance.—We this week issue our paper on Monday—two days in advance of our regular publication day. Several reasons combine to urge us to do so.

Blankets, grey and white, cheap, at Fortune's.

Mr. Editor:—I see by the last Local that Captain D. M. Donahoo has become disgusted with the Senatorial business, and has taken to exhibiting curious eggs. This is clever, and we wish him all the success imaginable. I think he will get along well in his new vocation.

Go early and secure your fall and winter goods, and save money, at Fortune's cheap store, in the Diamond, Rochester.

Agricultural.

The Board of Managers of the Beaver County Agricultural Society, will meet at the Court House, on Wednesday, Oct. 10th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is requested, for the purpose of settling all accounts pertaining to the Fair. By order,

WM. S. BARCLAY, Sec'y.

Balmoral & hoop skirts, great bargains at Fortune's, in the Diamond, Rochester.

Excellent Apples.—Mr. John Hutz, of Brighton township, presented us last week with a basket of most excellent apples. There were some eight or ten different varieties of hom and all grafted fruit. Mr. H. informs us that his apple crop this year will amount to about five hundred bushels. He will please accept our thanks for the favor.

See Fortune's new advertisement in another column.

Meeting at Darlington.—The Union meeting at Darlington on Wednesday last, although but little preperation was made, was well attended. The delegations from this place, Sharon, &c., numbered about one hundred.—Speeches were made in the afternoon by Col. A. W. Taylor, Rev. A. B. Bradford, and Ross Forward, Esq. At night the audience was addressed by J. S. Rutan, Esq., and Rev. A. Taylor. Our friends in that vicinity will poll an increased vote on to-morrow.

Hosiery and gloves, cheaper than ever, at Fortune's.

Cabinet Organs.—We know that we are doing schools a good service by calling attention to the Cabinet Organ manufactured by Messrs. Mason & Hamlin. The practibility of music in the school room is established beyond dispute. Into many schools instruments have already been introduced, and have carried with them great pleasure and profit. An effective and durable instrument has long been a desideratum. The very thing wanted is now supplied by Messrs. Mason & Hamlin. We have carefully examined the Cabinet Organ, and are delighted with it. It has a powerful yet sweet tone, an excellent swell, a bellows that works with great ease, and a case which is very neat and strong. The small price at which it is offered for sale, puts it within the reach of almost every school. Teachers who desire to obtain an instrument for their private use, and cannot afford to purchase a good piano, will find in the Cabinet Organ an admirable substitute.—Massachusetts Teacher.

Dry Goods, cheaper than ever, at Fortune's, in the Diamond, Rochester.

Mr. Editor: My profession is not politics, and I pay but little attention to political affairs. But I was a not uninterested spectator of the two political mass meetings held in Beaver recently, and I could not but remark the contrast in point of morals between that of the 11th of September and that of the 2d of October. The first under all the discouraging circumstances of the weather, was enthusiastic but quiet and orderly. I saw no rioting, no fighting, no evidence of the influence of whisky there.

The latter was large and equally enthusiastic, but any one solicitous for the good name of the county must have been mortified by the conduct of many of the participants. As the procession defiled along the streets, King Alcohol seemed to reign supreme. Drunken men rode wildly hither and thither, and the grossest profanity greeted the ear upon every hand. Ladies standing upon the sidewalk were rudely insulted, and the baldest ribaldry was indulged in by persons in the garb of gentlemen. Even the women in some of the wagons could not refrain from scurility, and when the meeting adjourned, for lack of other diversion, the Democracy took to breaking each others heads, and bloody noses were frequent.

I asked myself why is this? Why should a political gathering of one party differ from one of another in its moral aspect? Can you answer the question, Mr. Editor? To my mind there was but one answer that the religion, virtue and intelligence of the county were represented on the 11th, its impiety, licentiousness and ignorance on the 2d.

THE BATTLE AT THE BALLOT-BOX.

The time is approaching and soon will decide,
Whether freedom shall triumph o'er treason and pride.
Nerved to the duty, our banners shall be
Bringers the hope of the loyal and free.

Rouse up every patriot, stand firm to the last,
March forth in stern columns, defying the blast
Of foul-mouthed aggression and high handed wrong,
With Union your watchword and Freedom your song.

Come forth in your manhood and dignified might,
Give your vote for your country, for truth and the right!
Let the "copperheads" know, when a freeman decides,
That Heaven approves and the Union abides.

Let the foe feel the vengeance of each blow you deal;
The ballot is strong as the bright burnished steel,
And traitors shall cower as they read in each eye
The thrilling decision, "We conquer or die!"

That Flag Affair.—The Local puns and blows a great deal about an affair that occurred between Capt. Gillis and Rev. J. M. Smith's lady on the day of the copperhead demonstration in this place, in relation to his tying a rope to one of the trees in front of her dwelling.

If what occurred or was said on that day between Mrs. Smith and Capt. Gillis redounds any to his own honor or to the advantage of the party that he showed such willingness to serve at that time, we are sure they are welcome to all the glory and profit which the enterprise naturally brings; but as Capt. Gillis is a comparative stranger here, and as he is moreover a church member and attached to one of the religous bodies of Beaver, we wish to say very quietly to him that five-sixths of the church members and church patrons of all the denominations in Beaver and vicinity, believe that Mrs. Smith was right in what she insisted upon that day, and that she was wrong; and that five-sixths of those who applaud his conduct in that particular are neither church members nor recognize gospel claims.

This is the verdict of the people of this locality on the flag affair of Tuesday last, and the fact that Capt. Gillis and his friends were the first to give publicity to the matter is proof that neither himself nor they understand the character of the people among whom they reside.

Let Capt. Gillis judge his own case, and he can perhaps easily see whether this opinion of the better class of our people is a proper or an improper one; suppose the Union men of Beaver on Saturday next make up their minds to have a demonstration in honor of their victory on the preceeding Tuesday; and suppose too that Mrs Smith would feel like taking part in the proceedings, and would accordingly propose to swing a flag across the street by tying one end of the line to the tree by her house and the other end to the tree by Capt. Gillis' door. The Capt. would of course object; Mrs. Smith would insist; and we fancy that the dispute would come to an end by Capt. Gillis declaring that the line could only go up over his dead body.

Or, suppose again, that our friend Henry Hice, Esq, should feel a little jubilant over the result of the election and manifest his delight by proposing to stretch a flag from one of the trees in front of his house to another by the dwelling of Sam B. Wilson, Esq. Mr. Wilson would undoubtedly object, and there is no intelligent man or woman in Beaver that would condemn him for so doing.

We repeat then that if Capt. Gillis and his friends are satisfied with the position this social impropriety, and, perhaps, legal misdemeanor has placed him in, we are content also. If it suits him to have his conduct here approved by the irreverent and irreligious portion of the community, and disapproved by those who wish to deal justly and labor to do right, it will also suit us and the party with which we act.

A Prompt and Honorable Transaction.—The Niagara Fire Insurance Company, of the city of New York, paid their losses, $70,000 and upward, within one week after the great fire in Portland, besides paying $1000 toward the relief of uninsured sufferers.—Such promptness will increase confidence in an excellent company. Mr J. M'Clure, of Beaver, is the agent of the Niagara for this locality.

Lost.—On the 6th inst., between Rochester and Beaver, a lady lost a portmonie, containing $4 in bills and $1,50 in silver. Any person finding said portmonie and leaving it at this office will be liberally rewarded.

A Warning to Young Men

You are just starting in life, with the world all before you, when and how to chose. Beware how you connect your fortunes with a decayed and dishonered party, indelibly stained with treason, and upon whose tombstone the historian will write: "False to liberty, false to its country, and false to the age in which it lived." The Democratic party has committed a crime for which history has no pardon, and the memories of men no forgetfulness, whose colors grow darker from age to age, and for which the execrations of mankind become more bitter from generation to generation.—Governor Morton.

THE SOLDIERS' LEAGUE.

The undersigned, being honorably discharged Soldiers of Beaver county, and having formed ourselves into a League, do hereby, declare our purpose to vote for no man at the approaching election, who was not with us either in person or spirit while at the front, and having so declared, we further agree to support our comrade in battle," Gen. Geary, for Governor of Pennsylvania, and to do all that is legitimate and honorable to secure his election.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION!

WHERE TO BUY THE

CABINET ORGAN

And

THE PLACE TO GET THEM

It is a general feeling among those about to purchase musical instruments, that were they indirect communication with the factory they would have a greater opportunity for selecting a fresh and perfect instrument, than it would be possible to obtain from any agency. The subscriber would say, that to obviate this difficulty, and afford persons at a distance, the same privileges secured to those near the factory, sars. Mason & Hamlin have established a number of Wholesale Agencies at important points, where a full supply of all the various styles of Cabinet Organs is constantly kept on hand. This agency in Pittsburgh is a Wholesale one, and purchasers may rely on being served here, as advantageously as at the factory. A competent player and musician is always in attendance at the warerooms of the subscriber to perform on the instruments, exhibit their various powers and qualities, show the different stops and their combinations, and explain their internal construction. All instruments sold in the city, are sent to the residence of the purchaser without charge, and those sold out of the city are securely boxed and delivered at the railroad stations or landings in the city, free of expense.

Persons ordering an organ by letter, are assured that as good an instrument will be sent, as if they were here to select it personally; the subscribers considering themselves bound by honor and interest to select and forward none other than the very best of the style ordered.

Caution to Purchasers.—The high reputation of the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, and the extensive demand for them, has frequently induced dealers to represent that other instruments are the same thing; that there is no essential difference between the Cabinet Organs and the organs with various names made by other makers. This is not true. Several inventions, from which arise the chief excellences of the instrument, are peculiar to the Cabinet Organ; for, being patented and controlled by a son & Ham lin, they cannot be used by other makers. It is therefore not merely from more thorough workmanship and better material, that the Cabinet Organ derives its superiority (though much is derived from these) but there are essential differences of construction, the right to employ which is the property of its manufacturers.

Purchasers should be careful to observe that the words Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organ are on the name board of each instrument in full.

When a dealer represents any other instrument as a Cabinet Organ, or as the same thing, it is almost always an attempt so sell an inferior instrument on which he can make a larger profit.

The subscribers will be happy to receive communications from any one that desires further information about the Cabinet Organ, and are anxious to put into the hands of everybody, whether intending to purchase an instrument or not, a copy of the circular, which contains a vast amount of interesting musical information. Copies mailed free to any address.
